

Bar Harbor and the White Fleet

MOOSE VISIT THE HOTEL
GROUND, CONSENT TO BE PHOTOGRAPHED
AND RETURN TO THE FOREST.

BAR HARBOR, Me., Saturday.—BAR HARBOR is taking to dancing more this summer than ever before, and there was not a night this week that a dance of some sort was not held.

Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Tower have been spending the last ten days here and have given a number of functions. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Kelly, who have given several luncheons, dinners and receptions for them. Miss Furlan gave a dinner for them on Sunday night, and Count and Countess Laugel-Villars on Tuesday night.

Preparations continue to be made for the Horse Show, which takes place the week after next. Entries have already been made by W. Butler Duncan, J. T. Bowen, H. L. Eno, Miss Janet Dana and A. Dana. Cups have been offered for prizes by Philip Livingston, Mr. Abercrombie, Mrs. William P. Disston, Mr. Miles B. Carpenter, Mrs. J. J. Emery, Mrs. A. J. Cassatt, Mrs. J. T. Bowen, Mrs. William P. Draper, Mrs. Herbert W. Sears, Miss Coles, Mrs. A. D. Addison, Mrs. W. W. Seely, Mrs. H. L. Eno and W. Butler Duncan.

There is a great demand for boxes at the show, and they are going at very prices already. Those who have obtained them so far are Gardiner-Sherman, J. J. Emery, A. J. Cassatt, Mrs. Beales, Philip Livingston, Mrs. Charles Ewing Green and A. M. Coates. Coach stands have been secured by J. T. Bowen, J. L. Ketterlinus, Miss Furlan, C. S. Wadsworth, Dr. Whiting, W. G. Ladd, Miss Eddie, A. D. Addison, Mrs. Sue Sherry and Mr. Abercrombie.

On Sunday Mrs. Thomas Kelly gave a luncheon of fourteen covers at Bowline Green, in honor of Ambassador and Mrs. Chalmers Tower, her guests. A dancing party was given in the Lyman House Saturday evening by Mrs. Joseph G. Whyte, of Baltimore, for her daughters, Miss Elizabeth and Miss Louise Whyte. Mrs. C. W. Horlick, of New York, has arrived at the Lyman for the month of August. Among the guests at the Newport is Count von Hockberg, of Germany, who will remain for a week. Late arrivals at the Lyman include William R. White, Joseph N. Henry and Mrs. James F. Livingston, of Philadelphia.

A large dinner was given Sunday evening at the Lyman, by Miss Furlan, in honor of Ambassador and Mrs. Chalmers Tower. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Kelly, Mrs. Gardiner-Sherman, Mrs. MacNutt, Miss K. D. Hall, Mrs. Fox, Admiral and Mrs. Upshur, Mrs. Zimmerman, Charles H. Howe, Mr. Morris, Mr. Weissman, Mr. R. C. Parsons and Mr. Robert Pendleton Bowler.

Other dinners at the Lyman were given Sunday evening by Mrs. and Miss Grant and Mrs. Seilman.

Among the recent arrivals at the Lyman are Mrs. W. S. Walsh, of York; Miss de Milo, Mrs. N. E. Baylies, Miss S. Huguenin, of New York; Miss A. McLaughlin, Mrs. F. A. Eames, M. C. Emerson, of Boston; William H. Grevenmeyer, Mrs. and Miss Grevenmeyer, of Philadelphia; Miss H. Colamore, Mrs. Quincy, of Boston; Dr. Harold G. Palmer, of Providence; Mrs. H. M. Phillips, of Springfield, and Alexander Phillips, of Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Rollin Morse, of Boston, who have passed several summers here, are at the Lyman for an extended stay. Miss Ruth Lawrence entertained Sunday in honor of Miss Natalie de Castro. A pleasant lunch was given Saturday at Kebo, when Miss Seely entertained a party of fourteen.

General and Mrs. Hirschbuck, of Washington, are the guests of Colonel and Mrs. E. W. Bass, at the Kebo street home. Loren Fletcher, of Minneapolis, is the guest of J. P. Bass, at Columbia cottage. Miss Emma Olin, of Boston, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Wilson, at the cottage. Mrs. J. L. Ketterlinus entertained four tables at bridge on Wednesday evening, at Bideaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Folmstock, of New York, are in the harbor, on their yacht, the Shenandoah.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hone, of New York, who are occupying the Hone, in Cottage street, will give a reception at the Pot and Kettle Club, on next Wednesday, for their son, Augustus C. Hone, and his fiancée, Miss Alice Castleman, of Kentucky, who will come on Monday.

Cloudless skies and brilliant sunshine were Dame Nature's contributions to the programme arranged for last Tuesday, and right well were her favors enjoyed by the gay throng assembled at the Pot and Kettle Club by invitation of Captain Thomas J. Bush, of Kentucky. The marine band from the Indiana gave delightful music, and Lindell's stringed orchestra played for the Virginia reel, the dancers and the round dances on the lawn, led by Miss Elizabeth Potter and Mr. William Wright.

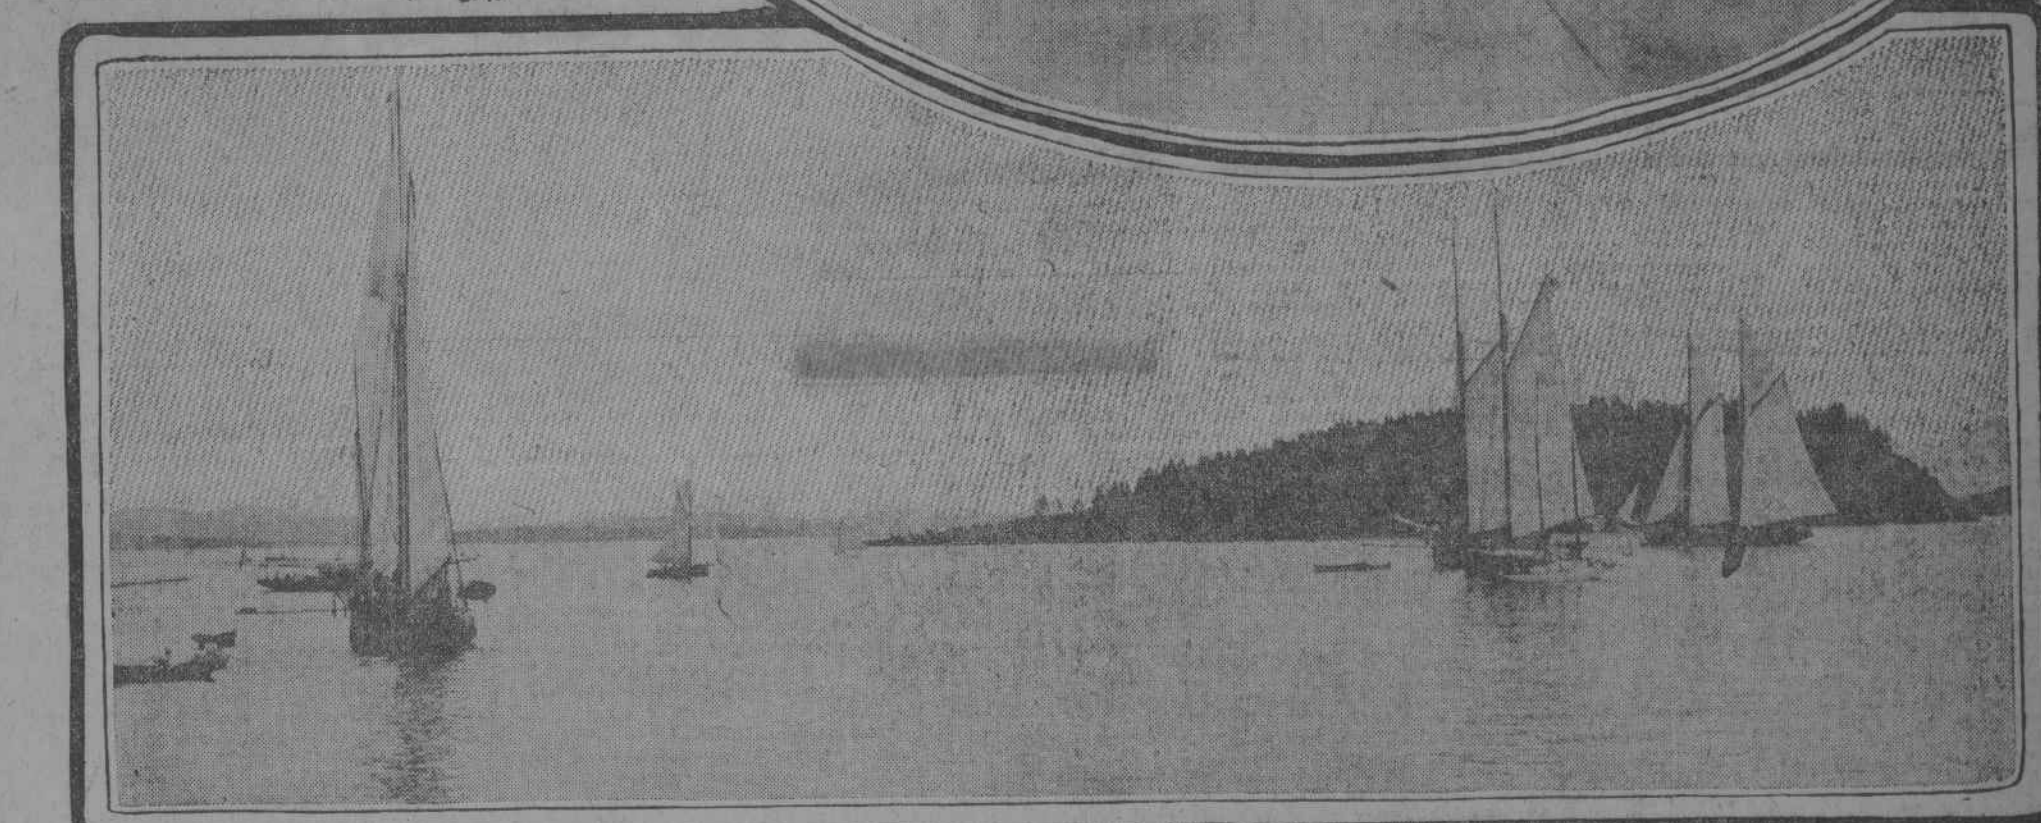

Among those who took part in the dancing were Miss Mabel Taylor, Miss Holmes, Miss Emery, Miss Mona Robinson, Miss Sherman, Miss O'Brien, Miss Knowlton, Miss de Castro, the Misses Miller, Mrs. Travis, Miss Baxter, Miss Auchincloss, Mrs. Edgar Scott, Mrs. James Potter, Mrs. Shober, the Misses Whyte, Miss Ruth Lawrence, Miss Barney, Miss Danney, Miss Whitney, the Misses Gourlie, Miss Johnson, Miss Leslie, Miss Morgan Hill, the Misses Hollins, Miss Emlen-Smith, Miss Sampson, Miss Susanne Green, Miss Elkins, Miss Diston, Miss Grace Morris, Augustus and Jasper Lynch, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Howe.

Dr. Chapman, Richard Peters, Henderson Inches, John H. Potter, Mr. Wellman, Mr. Wilson, Midshipmen Blackburn, Strassburger, Swanson, Miner, Le Breton, Grake and Spofford, Ensigns Oakley, Whitlock and Bagley, J. Montgomery Sears, Jr., Percy Taylor, Graham Roberts, Mr. Elkins, Midshipmen Rawie and Reese.

Among the members of the foreign legations were Mr. C. Brun, Mr. C. Hauger, Mr. Wauters, Mr. von Rooyen, Mr. von Bredow and Lieutenant Martin. Among those present from the squadron in the harbor were Captain Reeder, of the Hartford; Captain Emory, of the Indiana; Captain Lyon, of the Olympia, and Captain Colvocoresses, of the Yankee.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Dimock have arrived at the Canary cottage for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burrill of New York, are at the Lymanburg.

MT DESERT
CLUB
FRENCHMAN'S
BAY.

MORNING ON FRENCHMAN'S BAY.

SOME BIG FISH IN MOOSEHEAD LAKE

MOOSEHEAD LAKE, Me., Saturday.—"This is the most restful and beautiful spot in the world," said a famous traveller some five years ago as he stood upon the piazza of the Mount Kineo House one evening and looked out over the waters of Moosehead Lake. "The scenic and climatic attractions must soon make it one of the greatest among America's great summer resort sections."

There is no cause for surprise that those who have once visited Moosehead should want to come again, and there is still less cause for wonder that others, when old habits tell of its beauties, should determine to see it for themselves.

Moosehead Lake and Mount Kineo are the gateway to the greatest hunting and fishing sections of Maine, and as a result one hundred or more members of the Maine Guide Association make their headquarters here.

In the waters of Moosehead itself the fishing at the opening of the season is second to none in the State, and when the summer sun warms the water and the big square tails and lakere seek the cooler depths below it is the guides alone who know where to find them and how to lure them.

A character among the wise and learned fishermen at Kineo is John Wilcox, or as he is known here "Old Man" Wilcox. "There's one on 'em in particular that I'm looking for this year," said he to me yesterday, while in a reminiscence mood. "Don't recollect her name, except that her daddy, who she came here with last year, is the Colonel. And she's a gal, let me tell you. Tall and straight as one of them young pine trees, and jess about as strong, as I found out."

"Oh, sez she, 'Mr. Wilcox, I'd jess like to hook the biggest fish in this lake,' sez she."

"Go on," sez I, "reckon you did he'd pull you to the bottom afore you got him to the top."

"I don't know," sez she, "I'm pretty strong, and I calculated as I looked her over she wuz telling the truth. So I paddled her away to a deep spot I knew, and down went our lines."

"In a few minutes" got a tug from someone. "I knowed wuzn't no chub, and then I hands her the line."

"There, my lady," sez I, "there's yer fish, and he ain't no stickleback nuther. Now, let's see how strong you be."

"Well, sir, that gal looked a bit scared for a second when she felt the first real strong pull. Then she got her white teeth and the right confidence. Four times she got him to the top in sixty-five feet of water, and four times he went down, makin' her soft, white hands red, an' blisterin' 'em each time. Then she played him easy, and he, being tired, she flopped him into the boat—a twelve pound lakere and as hard a fighter as ever I see."

"Oh, Mr. Wilcox," she yelled, pantin' hard, "I got him, haven't I?"

"Yep," sez I, "but if you don't kill 'im he'll be back in the water soon as he gets his wind."

WHITE MOUNTAINS

CRAWFORD HOUSE, N. H., Saturday.—August has brought the usual number of people into the White Hills, where they flock from the beaches and lake resorts.

Baseball is attracting the lion's share of attention just now. At Bethlehem, New Hampshire, the Boston Red Sox, Littleton, Lancaster, Lisbon and Whitefield are baseball teams of more than ordinary excellence.

There is to be at North Conway, next Wednesday and Thursday, an old fashioned coaching parade, with ball games and balls, bands and band wags, from all over the White Mountains.

A number of women who have come to the mountains from the seashore are introducing a new fad here, that of bathing in the hills. At the Mount Washington Hotel there is a swimming pool sixty feet long and half as wide, which is filled with spring water, maintained at a temperature of 72 degrees. Here the patron may take an early morning plunge or an afternoon dip, but the patrons of the Profile House and cottages can "go them one better," for with Profile and Echo lakes at hand, bath houses and floats, canoes and diving boards, there is the ideal bathing place. At Merrill Spring, near the Crawford House, is another pool, where bathing may be had in a setting of green hills. Many women who do not care to show their bathing costumes in the mountains are taking to fishing as a duck takes to water. Clad in natty short skirts and Tam o' Shanter, they cover their faces with black dy lotion and start off with rod and basket to fish in some mountain stream. Mrs. George W. C. Drexel, of Philadelphia, spends much time fishing, and with her husband, Livingston and Blaine, takes a boat out on Echo Lake, in front of the hotel, every afternoon for a bit of angling.

Dr. W. C. Prime, of New York, who summers in Franconia, is an inveterate angler. J. A. Benneche, of New York, who is at the Mount Pleasant House, is also a fisherman whose success is proverbial. Horseback riding is rapidly growing in popularity.

"How am I to do that?" sez she, lookin' kinder scary.

"Jess pull his nose up on the side of the boat there," sez I, "and rap 'im three or four times with that 'ere club there," sez I.

"Well, sir, she drew 'im up as I tol her and she hit lakere a bat over the nose that finished him to once. Then she hit 'im again a pelt you could a heard across the lake, at which I tol her if she wanted anything left of the fish she'd better let up. An' then, what do you suppose that gal did? She jess poked that big, bloody fish up and laid it on her lap. Then she wrapped her pretty white apron aroun' him, and lookin' at me, laughin' and cryin' at the same time, 'I guess,' she says, 'Mr. Wilcox, he won't get away now.'"

"When I paddled the canoe back to where her daddy was waitin' for us she jess stood up in the canoe and, holdin' that fish at arms' length, as easy as she it wuz a two-pounder, she yelled:—

"Look here, daddy, if I don't ketch an' bring home lakere I'm here I'll be glad I came, anyway!"

PLAYING GOLF IN MANCHESTER

MANCHESTER IN THE MOUNTAINS, Vt., Saturday.—This village is overflowing with people, many of them attracted here by the golf tournament for the first President's Cup, which comes to an end to-day. The weather has been cool and favorable, and great golf has been played on the Ekwonok links.

Among the most prominent golfers at the tournament are Walter J. Travis, D. Lloyd and Jasper Lynch, who are guests of James L. Taylor; F. M. Freeman, with Mr. Wheeler; John M. Ward, A. J. Wellington and Ernest N. Wright, the Boston golfers; N. Malouf, the Cornell champion; T. J. O. Alston, the Yale golfer; Thomas T. Reid, A. M. Reed, A. L. White, William C. Freeman, W. L. Gunther, W. W. Lowrey, C. M. Clark, W. J. Evans, D. Oden Hartmann, R. B. Leake, Paul Waterman, N. W. Anthony, Fred Herreshoff, Willis Austin, George C. Dutton, N. G. Carman, C. C. Converse and H. L. Edwards.

The prizes offered by P. S. Wheeler and W. W. Burton for the thirty-six hole Scotch foursome handicap tournament, played last Saturday, were won by N. Malouf and J. S. Jones.

The summer colony at Manchester has been looking forward during the week to the dramatic entertainment to be given at Music Hall this evening by the Misses Hoyt. They will be assisted by Mrs. Day McGlinchey, C. S. Robinson, H. J. White and R. P. Hoyt.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Sharpe, who recently purchased the magnificent building site Grand View, in the southern part of the township, have for the thirty-six hole Scotch foursome handicap tournament, played last Saturday, were won by N. Malouf and J. S. Jones.

Recent arrivals here from New York are Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hornblower, Lewis W. Hornblower, George S. Hornblower, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Hornblower, Miss C. A. Dukes, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Kelley, Helen W. Kelley, Albert Kelley, Jr.; Miss S. S. Pattison, Miss L. W. Pattison, W. B. Raymond, N. Hadley, W. H. Heller, Miss J. F. Heller, E. P. Bullard, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson G. Carman, W. L. Gunther, Miss Williams, Frederick Herreshoff, William W. Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Miller, H. C. Sherard, Mrs. J. B. Francis Herreshoff, Miss Herreshoff.

Arrivals from other places are Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Fiero, A. W. La Rose, Miss M. A. De Forest, Miss Miss O'Leary, W. G. Nash, J. F. Montgomery, Albany; Thomas McBride, Burton S. Eder, Harold G. Hartwell, G. B. Wellington, T. K. Wellington, C. H. Nash, F. N. Draper, C. A. Hunter, R. E. Poole, O. C. Holney, C. S. Presd, H. Hartwell, A. H. Ide, J. D. Shoder, George H. Harrison, A. W. Harrington, Jr.; Ransom H. Gillet, Mrs. F. R. Cramer Knight, Miss Fanny Holley.

Now that Mrs. George Westinghouse has returned to Lenox it is expected there will be a number of dinners given in the near future at Residue Park.

J. Pierpont Morgan is expected the latter part of the month at Allen Wenden as the guest of Charles Lanier. Miss Grace McEwan, of New York, has been the guest this week of Miss Edna Hall at the Aspinwall.

John Sloane, Jr., has gone to Seal Harbor, Me., where he is the guest of Donald Layton, Brookline.

Among the late arrivals at the Summit Spring Hotel, registered from New York, are: A. F. Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Hart, J. M. Libby, Miss Annie F. Kimball, Miss A. M. Fay, Miss A. Halsey, Mrs. A. E. Cozine, Mrs. A. E. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Clark, Mr. Frank Tobey, Miss Laura H. Tobey, Mrs. A. L. Ashman, Miss Cochran, W. E. Sanction, Mr. T. Toppan, Miss S. C. Phipps, Mrs. C. Z. Morey and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Frier.

Such marvelous strains of poetry I weave, I sing the emerald grass, the bird, the bee, The hill, the dale, the glen, the brook, the sea.

The rhyming business it is hard to leave, When trees and plant and flower I perceive I can't control the ecstasy I see; When Nature's wondrous harmonies I see, I'm forced to poeize from morn to eve. But if from day to day I work the Muse, If I at night of bud and bloom rejoice, And sing in feeble trope and halting line, I pray that my offence you will excuse, For in some way or other I must voice This rank midsummer madness which is mine!

N. M. LEVY.

PLAYING GOLF IN MANCHESTER

MANCHESTER IN THE MOUNTAINS, Vt., Saturday.—This village is overflowing with people, many of them attracted here by the golf tournament for the first President's Cup, which comes to an end to-day. The weather has been cool and favorable, and great golf has been played on the Ekwonok links.

Among the most prominent golfers at the tournament are Walter J. Travis, D. Lloyd and Jasper Lynch, who are guests of James L. Taylor; F. M. Freeman, with Mr. Wheeler; John M. Ward, A. J. Wellington and Ernest N. Wright, the Boston golfers; N. Malouf, the Cornell champion; T. J. O. Alston, the Yale golfer; Thomas T. Reid, A. M. Reed, A. L. White, William C. Freeman, W. L. Gunther, W. W. Lowrey, C. M. Clark, W. J. Evans, D. Oden Hartmann, R. B. Leake, Paul Waterman, N. W. Anthony, Fred Herreshoff, Willis Austin, George C. Dutton, N. G. Carman, C. C. Converse and H. L. Edwards.

The prizes offered by P. S. Wheeler and W. W. Burton for the thirty-six hole Scotch foursome handicap tournament, played last Saturday, were won by N. Malouf and J. S. Jones.

The summer colony at Manchester has been looking forward during the week to the dramatic entertainment to be given at Music Hall this evening by the Misses Hoyt. They will be assisted by Mrs. Day McGlinchey, C. S. Robinson, H. J. White and R. P. Hoyt.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Sharpe, who recently purchased the magnificent building site Grand View, in the southern part of the township, have for the thirty-six hole Scotch foursome handicap tournament, played last Saturday, were won by N. Malouf and J. S. Jones.

Recent arrivals here from New York are Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hornblower, Lewis W. Hornblower, George S. Hornblower, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Hornblower, Miss C. A. Dukes, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Kelley, Helen W. Kelley, Albert Kelley, Jr.; Miss S. S. Pattison, Miss L. W. Pattison, W. B. Raymond, N. Hadley, W. H. Heller, Miss J. F. Heller, E. P. Bullard, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson G. Carman, W. L. Gunther, Miss Williams, Frederick Herreshoff, William W. Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Miller, H. C. Sherard, Mrs. J. B. Francis Herreshoff, Miss Herreshoff.

Arrivals from other places are Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Fiero, A. W. La Rose, Miss M. A. De Forest, Miss Miss O'Leary, W. G. Nash, J. F. Montgomery, Albany; Thomas McBride, Burton S. Eder, Harold G. Hartwell, G. B. Wellington, T. K. Wellington, C. H. Nash, F. N. Draper, C. A. Hunter, R. E. Poole, O. C. Holney, C. S. Presd, H. Hartwell, A. H. Ide, J. D. Shoder, George H. Harrison, A. W. Harrington, Jr.; Ransom H. Gillet, Mrs. F. R. Cramer Knight, Miss Fanny Holley.

Now that Mrs. George Westinghouse has returned to Lenox it is expected there will be a number of dinners given in the near future at Residue Park.

J. Pierpont Morgan is expected the latter part of the month at Allen Wenden as the guest of Charles Lanier. Miss Grace McEwan, of New York, has been the guest this week of Miss Edna Hall at the Aspinwall.

John Sloane, Jr., has gone to Seal Harbor, Me., where he is the guest of Donald Layton, Brookline.

Among the late arrivals at the Summit Spring Hotel, registered from New York, are: A. F. Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Hart, J. M. Libby, Miss Annie F. Kimball, Miss A. M. Fay, Miss A. Halsey, Mrs. A. E. Cozine, Mrs. A. E. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Clark, Mr. Frank Tobey, Miss Laura H. Tobey, Mrs. A. L. Ashman, Miss Cochran, W. E. Sanction, Mr. T. Toppan, Miss S. C. Phipps, Mrs. C. Z. Morey and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Frier.

Such marvelous strains of poetry I weave, I sing the emerald grass, the bird, the bee, The hill, the dale, the glen, the brook, the sea.

The rhyming business it is hard to leave, When trees and plant and flower I perceive I can't control the ecstasy I see; When Nature's wondrous harmonies I see, I'm forced to poeize from morn to eve. But if from day to day I work the Muse, If I at night of bud and bloom rejoice, And sing in feeble trope and halting line, I pray that my offence you will excuse, For in some way or other I must voice This rank midsummer madness which is mine!

N. M. LEVY.

PERK SHIRES

LENEX, Mass., Saturday.—Not for many years has the weather in Berkshire been so cool as this summer and the new-comers among the cottagers and hotel patrons are surprised at the delightful atmosphere of this "Inland Newport." With a temperature of from sixty to seventy degrees driving, golfing and tennis have been all the go.

Among the late arrivals this week were the Misses Furness, who opened Edgecomb for the first time this summer. George C. Smith and family arrived at the Aspinwall Cottage No. 2, where they will be for the rest of the summer and autumn.

Mrs. John Sloane and Miss Evelyn Sloane left early in the week for the White Mountains and Bar Harbor. Miss Adele Kneeland has been entertaining at Fairlawn Mrs. Henry Monroe, of Tuxedo.

Among the late arrivals at the Hotel Aspinwall are Mrs. E. F. Shepard, of Bridgeport; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Janey, of New York; the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Rider, Gloucester, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. John M. Armond, Crompton, R. I.; and Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Schoonmaker, Stamford, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Colgate, of New York, are at the Curtis Hotel for August. Much interest has been taken this season in the concerts by the Lenox Band at Monument square on each Thursday evening. Liberal subscriptions have been received from Mrs. Joseph M. White, John Sloane, Giraud Foster, John E. Alexander, George G. Haven, William D. Curtis and others, and every Thursday evening the square is crowded with the fine turnout.

Miss Edna Hall, of New York, daughter of Judge Ernest Hall, of the Supreme Court bench, won the clock golf tournament on the Aspinwall links on Tuesday afternoon.

Since the exciting experience of Mr. and Mrs. Warren B. Sturgis, of Boston, on Monday afternoon, when their horses became frightened at a steam roller, the highways now being repaired have been generally avoided.

H. K. Bloodgood, of New York, has just purchased 100 acres adjoining his estate and this will be added to his game preserve in New Marlboro, Alexander Griswold has been entertaining General Charles E. Payne, of Providence, this week. Captain R. S. Hayes, U. S. A., has been a guest at Coldbrook, the country place of Captain John S. Barnes.

With the leading hotels here filled to the roof, this has been an unusually active week in Pittsfield. Among the recent arrivals at the Maplewood have been Mr. and Mrs. R. Thomas, Thomaston, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Masterson, Aiken, S. C.; Mrs. Dorothy Masterson, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Dunning, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Whitcomb, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ross, New Haven, and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sweet and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ackert, Valley Falls.

Bishop McVickar, of Rhode Island, has been the guest this week of the Rev. Dr. Arthur Lawrence at St. Paul's rectory.

Colony of Pittsfield.—With the leading hotels here filled to the roof, this has been an unusually active week in Pittsfield. Among the recent arrivals at the Maplewood have been Mr. and Mrs. R. Thomas, Thomaston, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Masterson, Aiken, S. C.; Mrs. Dorothy Masterson, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Dunning, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Whitcomb, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ross, New Haven, and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sweet and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ackert, Valley Falls.

Bishop McVickar, of Rhode Island, has been the guest this week of the Rev. Dr. Arthur Lawrence at St. Paul's rectory.

Colony of Pittsfield.—With the leading hotels here filled to the roof, this has been an unusually active week in Pittsfield. Among the recent arrivals at the Maplewood have been Mr. and Mrs. R. Thomas, Thomaston, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Masterson, Aiken, S. C.; Mrs. Dorothy Masterson, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Dunning, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Whitcomb, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ross, New Haven, and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sweet and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ackert, Valley Falls.

Bishop McVickar, of Rhode Island, has been the guest this week of the Rev. Dr. Arthur Lawrence at St. Paul's rectory.

LIVELY WEEK AT OLD KENNEBUNKPORT

KENNEBUNKPORT, Me., Saturday.—Beginning with the hop at the Casino Saturday night, which was unusually successful, the week has been a gay one socially. Monday Mrs. E. C. Stanwood gave a ladies' tea in her artistic cottage for her guest, Mrs. Shreve, of Boston. Mrs. Robert C. Ogden gave one of the prettiest luncheons of the season last Saturday.

Tuesday Miss Lucy Fay gave one of the largest teas of the season. She was assisted by Mrs. Hotchkiss, of Buffalo; Mrs. Jones, of Philadelphia, who posed tea, and Mrs. Robert C. Ogden, of New York, who served frappé. Among those present were Mrs. McKee and her sister, Mrs. Chaffin; Mrs. Burnham, Mrs. Hoyt, Mrs. William B. Sanders, Mrs. H. P. Clark, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Welch, Mrs. Ewing, Mrs. Manning, Mrs. McGraw and Mrs. Edwin Packard and her daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. De Haven, of Philadelphia, are guests of the Braziers, at Juniper Lodge. Mrs. Brazier gave a euchre party for them this week.

William R. Ward, of East Orange, a patron of the Stone Haven, holds the record for deep sea fishing for this season, bringing in a cod Monday that weighed sixty pounds.

VISITORS IN POLAND.—Among the late arrivals at the Summit Spring Hotel, registered from New York, are: A. F. Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Hart, J. M. Libby, Miss Annie F. Kimball, Miss A. M. Fay, Miss A. Halsey, Mrs. A. E. Cozine, Mrs. A. E. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Clark, Mr. Frank Tobey, Miss Laura H. Tobey, Mrs. A. L. Ashman, Miss Cochran, W. E. Sanction, Mr. T. Toppan, Miss S. C. Phipps, Mrs. C. Z. Morey and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Frier.

Such marvelous strains of poetry I weave, I sing the emerald grass, the bird, the bee, The hill, the dale, the glen, the brook, the sea.

The rhyming business it is hard to leave, When trees and plant and flower I perceive I can't control the ecstasy I see; When Nature's wondrous harmonies I see, I'm forced to poeize from morn to eve. But if from day to day I work the Muse, If I at night of bud and bloom rejoice, And sing in feeble trope and halting line, I pray that my offence you will excuse, For in some way or other I must voice This rank midsummer madness which is mine!

N. M. LEVY.

Under Pressure.—Such marvelous strains of poetry I weave, I sing the emerald grass, the bird, the bee, The hill, the dale, the glen, the brook, the sea.

The rhyming business it is hard to leave, When trees and plant and flower I perceive I can't control the ecstasy I see; When Nature's wondrous harmonies I see, I'm forced to poeize from morn to eve. But if from day to day I work the Muse, If I at night of bud and bloom rejoice, And sing in feeble trope and halting line, I pray that my offence you will excuse, For in some way or other I must voice This rank midsummer madness which is mine!

N. M. LEVY.

Under Pressure.—Such marvelous strains of poetry I weave, I sing the emerald grass, the bird, the bee, The hill, the dale, the glen, the brook, the sea.

The rhyming business it is hard to leave, When trees and plant and flower I perceive I can't control the ecstasy I see; When Nature's wondrous harmonies I see, I'm forced to poeize from morn to eve. But if from day to day I work the Muse, If I at night of bud and bloom rejoice, And sing in feeble trope and halting line, I pray that my offence you will excuse, For in some way or other I must voice This rank midsummer madness which is mine!

N. M. LEVY.